DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Griffith et al. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are not deemed persuasive. Applicants argue that the reference does not disclose bonding an impermeable layer to the core with adhesive. The suggested to do so is found at column 9, lines 9-15, wherein it is stated the core can be adhered to the barrier layer. The term "adhere" implies the use of an adhesive; see the definition of "adhere". Furthermore, at column 9, lines 33-34, it is stated that "Known adhesives" can be used to assemble the baffle materials into the desired form. Concerning the use of the barrier layer during forming of the laminate, process limitations such as this do not add any patentably distinguishing features to the final article.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1772

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
